THOUSANDS FLEE SOUTH LEBANON

More than half a million refugees have fled southern Lebanon, as a consequence of the current intensified military bombardment. Most of them are old people, women and children. Their numbers are increasing daily and conditions continue to worsen.

ISLAMIC RELIEF has already allocated US$ 30,000 for its operations to help the refugees who are fleeing Southern Lebanon and has set itself an initial target of US$ 250,000 to raise in this appeal.

Due to the fact that the number of people fleeing their homes in Lebanon is rapidly increasing, Islamic Relief has started to arrange 'Family Ration Packs'. These contain 15 kg of basic necessities.

The packets cost £25 each and are intended to last the average family for one week
